

ANOTHER NODAWAY BOOK IS UNDERWAY

DALE CARNAGEY, FORMER RESIDENT, IS WRITING IT

SCENES AT ROSE HILL

In the Harmony District—Author Now in Germany—Croy Tells Of His New Book At C. of C.

Another book, with scenes and characters taken in Nodaway County, is being written by a former Maryville boy. The author of this book is Dale Carnagey, a former resident, who is now in Germany. This fact was revealed last night by Homer Croy, author of "West of the Water Tower," and other books, in his talk at the luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce last night. Mr. Carnagey has gained quite a reputation for his work in public speaking and his texts upon this subject. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Carnagey, now live at Belton, Mo. Mrs. J. W. Alexander of Orrsburg is an aunt of Mr. Carnagey.

The scenes and characters in Mr. Carnagey's new book are from the Rose Hill district in the Harmony district neighborhood.

About sixty persons attended the luncheon at the Balmum last night. The guests of honor were Homer Croy of New York, and C. J. Colden, formerly editor of the Nodaway Forum and now in business at San Pedro, Calif. Both made short talks. Mr. Colden, who is president of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, highly praised the work of the Maryville Chamber of Commerce and declared that in similar work in California, they had gained inspiration from the Maryville Chamber.

Mr. Croy's talk was composed largely of telling various experiences in his journalistic and literary career. He was first a country correspondent, worked on the Maryville Tribune, then went to St. Joseph, St. Louis and finally landed in New York.

Mr. Croy said his next book was to be a story of the farm. He admitted he was visiting here at this time partly on account of getting incidents and facts about farm life which are to be used in his new book.

"There have been very few strictly farm novels written," said Mr. Croy. "In most of them the characters are taken to the city and are eventually swallowed up by metropolitan life. I intend to portray life upon the modern farm in the middlewest to include vitalized agriculture, modern equipment and the like."

Mr. Croy stressed the importance of the smallest details in a story and told how critical the publishers and public are to pick flaws in the details. He cited instances of two minute flaws in his latest book.

Mr. Croy settled the minds of his listeners by saying they need have no fear of being put into the next book as he had all of the characters fixed in his mind before leaving New York. He expects to complete the book about the first of next year.

The second round of the "mush-eating contest" between Croy and Colden was staged last evening. With handicaps considered, Mr. Croy emerged winner, even though Mr. Colden (with the aid of two assistants, J. F. Hull and George Robb Ellison) succeeded in disposing of his mush allotment first.

WAR CLUBS WANT MORE CO-OPERATION

BETWEEN EX-SERVICE MEN, IS CONSENSUS OF MEETING

COMMITTEE IS NAMED

To Work Out Co-Operative Plans—V. F. W. Will Probably Name One Thursday Night

That there should be greater co-operation between the war organizations of Maryville was the general consensus of opinion at a meeting of ex-service men held at the Armory last night. The American Legion appointed a committee consisting of L. M. Eek, Leonard Gray, Dr. C. T. Bell and Dr. Earl Braniger, and Murray Welling and M. V. Sims as alternates, to meet with a like committee from the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The V. F. W. committee will probably be appointed at the regular meeting Thursday night. These two committees will meet immediately and work out definite plans of co-operation.

K. P. Phares, Dr. C. T. Bell, L. M. Eek, Dr. Earl Braniger, Ed Kendall, Theodore Robinson and Henderson Aley were the speakers at last night's meeting. All expressed the opinion that nothing worth-while could be accomplished unless the two organizations would work in harmony.

A plan is now on foot by which members of the V. F. W. also become members of the Local American Legion but at the same time retain their standing as Veterans of Foreign Wars. However, this plan will be worked out in detail when the two committees meet.

The speakers last night expressed the hope that a community building would be erected soon but that it was practically an impossibility unless a campaign was made of every ex-service man in Nodaway County.

There is a possibility that the Eustace-Martinson wrestling match to be staged at the fairgrounds on July 4, will be under the auspices of both the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. This will also be determined by the committees from the two organizations.

After the general mass meeting was over, the American Legion met last night and members expressed a hope that co-operation between all ex-service men would be brought about.

Canines Believe In Church Union

If the Darwinian theory of evolution is correct, then some day there is likely to be a union of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches. At least, dogville has proclaimed it such. And when dogs finally attain a degree of nationality, they may be even more persistent in demanding a united church.

Last Sunday morning, Laddie, the collie dog belonging to Dr. C. C. James, called at the home of Uel W. Lamkin and invited Cinders, the airdale, to the morning services at the First M. E. Church. Cinders, with the natural good grace of a Presbyterian, immediately consented. While Dr. James was in the midst of his sermon, down the aisle walked Laddie and Cinders. Laddie looked up at his master in the pulpit, and seemed to say, "I am a little late but a good Presbyterian wanted to come with me, so I went by for him."

HARDING BUILDING G. O. P. PLATFORM

BY HIS PRESENT SPEECHES IS OPINION OF OBSERVERS

FIVE IMPORTANT PLANKS

Have Been Touched by the President In Address So Far—Is Seeking Party Harmony

Enroute with President Harding, Rawlins, Wyo., June 26: President Harding is slowly and methodically writing the Republican platform of 1924 as he pursues his steady speech-making way westward.

He is choosing his subjects with great care with his eyes upon party harmony and when he completes his score of major speeches, they will constitute his political advisors say, a Republican book for next year's usage.

The actual platform builders will find the planks all mapped out for them by the time the convention rolls around. The President has been gone from Washington six days. In this time he has delivered carefully prepared addresses upon five major topics which are certain to be in the foreground of issues next year.

The topics that he has discussed are: the international court, the railroad problem, prohibition, agriculture prosperity, and the coal problem.

Half Minute Interviews

Today's Question Was:

"Does Maryville need a rigid enforcement of a 'jaywalking' and 'jaydriving' ordinance?"

Harve England, chief of police: "There is more carelessness among pedestrians than among motorists. Traffic signals, either hand or horn, should always be given at intersections. Closed cars should use one horn straight ahead, two to the right and three to the left. Both pedestrians and motorists should be properly instructed."

L. H. Roberts, salesman, Lowry Hardware Co.: "They sure do. It is just a question of educating the people and showing them the danger."

Earl Barmann, Ford dealer: "I think we need it and need it bad. Many persons pay no attention at all as to where they are going. I am surprised that there are not more accidents. There is lots of carelessness both by pedestrians and motorists."

Geo. P. Wright, lawyer: "I think the jaydriving ordinance particularly ought to be enforced. The present parking system should be adhered to closely. If a motorist drives his car over the line of a stall he takes up two spaces."

Homer Brown, mechanic, Sewell Auto Co.: "I don't think we do. People have more common sense than they are credited with."

R. P. Hosmer, auctioneer: "There isn't any question but what we do. We need it for jaywalking just as badly as we do jaydriving."

Note: The Democrat-Forum will be glad to receive suggestions for questions to be asked in the "Half Minute Interviews."

CANADA MAY HELP TO STOP RUM FLOW

U. S. ASKS CLOSER CO-OPERATION IN LIQUOR SMUGGLING

INVITED TO DISCUSS IT

An American Delegation May Meet With Canadians in Ottawa With- in Next Month

Ottawa, June 26—Canada within the next two weeks will enter into negotiations with the United States to consider the possibilities of co-operating to check the rum running overboard, it was learned today from an official source.

Premier Mackenzie King admitted that the Canadian government had received a communication from Washington asking if it was possible for the Dominion to assist in preventing liquor being exported into the United States from Canada.

Ottawa's reply in the man was a statement of the Canadian laws existing at present touching upon this issue. There was no intimation of any policy that the government might adopt in the future.

"We have every desire to co-operate with the American authorities as we would hope they would have with us in the observance of our own laws," said Premier King.

Washington has been informed that as soon as the present parliament ends the Canadian government would be glad to receive an embassy of American officials in Ottawa for discussion of the American request. The present session of parliament is expected to adjourn about the first week of July.

MILLION ILLICIT BOOZE MAKERS

NEW YORK DRY CHIEF SAYS ONE OF EVERY 110 PERSONS

MOST OF IT POISONOUS

More Than 90 Per Cent Of So-called Imported Stuff Is Home Made, He Says

New York, June 26—One out of every 110 persons in the United States today is a bootlegger!

Whether on Main street or Broadway, 92 per cent of the "stuff" being sold as "bonded goods" is in reality nothing more than redistilled alcohol, colored, doctored and flavored—a toxic poison, maddening, dangerous and a breeder of crime.

Less than 10 per cent of all "liquor" sold as "smuggled stuff" is made outside the United States.

Palmer Canfield, prohibition chief for New York State, is authority for these statements.

It has been charged that "more liquor crosses the New York border than passes into any other State in the Union."

Analysis Urged
"All I ask is that the liquor being seized in raids everywhere be analyzed," Canfield said. "The chemists' test will tell where the 'liquor' is coming from."

Ninety-eight per cent of the stuff seized in raids will be found to be ethyl alcohol, diluted to 30 per cent and colored with burnt sugar," Canfield said.

Canfield, for eight years a member of the New York Health Department, called upon health officials to take notice of the bootlegging situation today.

Breeder Of Crime
"The drinking of the liquor being sold often has a maddening and dangerous effect—it is one of the greatest producers of crime," Canfield stated. "If one drop of this toxic poison were to get into the milk supply of any city, the Health Department would leave no stone unturned to find the offender—and yet a million men are selling, not drops, but millions of quarts of this noxious, unwholesome and semi-poisonous concoction."

Canfield announced he would bring "thousands of prohibition agents into Broadway to make the Great White Way a Sahara without an oasis," unless New York police lend aid in enforcing the Volstead law.

Canfield would not venture an estimate of the number of bootleggers now operating in New York.

"But there are one million of them in the United States—and the bootleg business is growing over-night," Canfield stated.

Refuses Married Man's Joyride Offer; Is Shot

San Antonio, June 26—Refusing to accept an invitation to go joyriding with a married man resulted in the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson early today. Mrs. Jackson was shot and almost instantly killed in a pistol duel by G. C. Taylor, 30, and married, in the stairway of the apartment house owned by Taylor and in which Mrs. Jackson had been a tenant. Taylor is being held by the police on a murder charge.

According to Mrs. Richard York, an intimate friend of the dead woman, Taylor had been persistent in his attentions to Mrs. Jackson and had been rebuffed because he was married. Following a quarrel between the two, Taylor ordered Mrs. Jackson from the house and later gave her permission to stay with Mrs. York. When she started down the stairs this morning he opened fire with a .45 caliber automatic. Mrs. Jackson returned fire with a .25 caliber revolver but her shots went wild and Taylor's took effect.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTYWill Receive $1,533 State and Federal Aid

High School Will Get That Amount—Agriculture Popular Course in High School

Jefferson City, Mo., June 26, 1923—According to a report issued by Geo. W. Reavis, State Director Vocational Education, Agriculture is rapidly becoming one of the most popular courses in high school throughout the State. The report shows there were eighty schools that received State and Federal aid as reimbursement for salary paid teachers of Vocational Agriculture last year. The total enrollment of students was 1750.

This type of agricultural teaching has as a basis a practical productive project. Each student enrolled is required to select some home project and carry it on under the supervision of the teacher for a period of at least six months. The teacher is employed twelve months in the year and aid is granted on this basis.

Some of the leading projects carried on during the past year are live stock production, poultry, corn, oats, alfalfa, potato, and cotton. The total receipts for all projects were $247,653 and the net profit was $88,442.

It is further pointed out that teachers in twenty-two centers conducted Short Course Evening Classes from four to twelve weeks in length for adult farmers and their wives. The total enrollment in these classes was 864. Practical problems of soil, dairying, poultry, crops, and farm animals were discussed in these sessions. According to Reavis, fifty-one teachers will conduct similar classes next year.

Throughout the State Farm Bureau, Farm, Commercial and Community Clubs are important agencies in supporting the Vocational Agricultural program and so wide spread is the interest becoming that many applications from school boards must be refused simply for lack of funds.

Our school board in Maryville, always on the outlook for the best, accepted the available aid and secured as a teacher for the past year, H. G. Tilly. Our district will receive $1533.33 special State and Federal aid.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WORK

Gained Strength, Weight and Now Doing Own Work, by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Marion, Ind.—"I was all run-down, nervous and bent over. I could hardly drag around, let alone do my work. I read some letters in the papers telling what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and I thought I would try it. Then a man told my husband about his wife and what good it had done her and wanted him to have me try it. I took one bottle and could see what it did for me in a week's time, and when I had taken three bottles I had gained both in strength and weight and was doing my own work. I took it before my last baby was born and it helped me so much. I sure am glad to recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who suffers from female ailments, for I know by experience what it can do. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, also the Liver Pills, too, and think them fine."—Mrs. Wm. ELDRIDGE, 620 E. Grant Street, Marion, Indiana.

A record of nearly fifty years service should convince you of the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Doughboys Ended The War So Soon

Says Maj. Gen. John F. O'Brien Today—Officials Had Planned Victory Drive in 1919

"In the spring of 1918, high officials of the army merely planned to 'carry on' during the spring and summer and to launch the real victory drive in 1919," he said. But the enthusiasm of the buck privates transformed into an avowal to 'hold Heaven or Hoboken' defeated our plans," the fighting New Yorker said.

Why Fordson Farming Is Big Yield Farming

FORDSON farmers have an adequate amount of power available for all farm operations. They can plow at the time when plowing does the most good. They can harrow, drill, cultivate, and harvest without delays and so save all their crops in the best of condition. That's why their crops are bigger. That's why their crops sell at higher prices.

Only one-ninth of the wheat in one of the biggest wheat states grades No. 1 or No. 2. The loss in grade is between harvest and marketing and most of this loss is caused by delays in threshing. But, this doesn't need to happen on a Fordson farm. With a Fordson and a Wood Brothers Individual Thresher, you don't have to wait your turn. You can thresh when the grain is in the best condition and when it will grade well on the market.

The Individual, being Standard Fordson Equipment, is in the price class that makes it economical for every Fordson farmer to own one. Often five or six go together in buying.

It wasn't a case of cutting down a big thresher to fit the Fordson. The Individual was built from the ground up to take its place as an important part of this new system of farming. It saves all the grain. It is fully guaranteed.

Radio Will Broadcast Fight Returns Here

Wrestling Fans Will Have Opportunity of Hearing Blow-by-Blow Returns of Dempsey-Gibbons Match.

Arrangements have been made to have a radio at the fairgrounds on July 4 to broadcast the blow-by-blow returns of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight at Shelby, Mont., on that day. The returns will be sent direct from the ring side at Shelby to Kansas City and from there will be relayed by the Kansas City Star.

This special arrangement will give all sportsmen of Northwest Missouri an opportunity to see a high grade wrestling match and to listen to fight returns on a world championship melee.

The July 4 wrestling match here will be refereed by Dr. D. J. Thomas, who is known as an authority of the mat game. Dr. Thomas has handled a number of matches here and has also shown capability in the technique of the game. The selection of Dr. Thomas to handle the match here July 4 assures the fans that the third man in the ring will be competent to handle the two big wrestlers.

The contract of Paul Martinson was received here today. The agreement with Alan Eustace was made at Kansas City last week.

City last week. The giant farmer-wrestler from Kansas City will arrive in Maryville Sunday and Martinson is expected Monday.

Both Martinson and Eustace weigh approximately 220 pounds and are two of the strongest contenders for the world heavyweight title. Each of these men has met Ed "Strangler" Lewis and succeeded in holding the champion for nearly two hours. Eustace has defeated Dick Davis twice and disposed of George Hills of Iowa sooner than did "Toots" Mondt. Eustace has obtained one fall from both Stanislas Zyzysko and Ed "Strangler" Lewis. He was defeated in Wichita last fall by John Pesek, known as "The Nebraska Tiger."

The College Park will be available for all out-of-town visitors to Maryville. There will be plenty of drinking water and places to serve lunch. Visitors are expected from all over Northwest Missouri.

Here It Is---What Doc Reid, Editor of the Wrestling News, Thinks of the Eustace-Martinson Match:

"These two have been growing at each other since the night they met on the mat at the Chicago Athletic Assn. in Chicago about two years ago in a match that went two hours to a draw. At the time the bout attracted a great amount of attention throughout the Mid-West, and ever since there has been intense rivalry between the two men. Promoters have extended overtures to both gladiators at different times, only to have something turned up to spill the beans; and the Mary-vile promoters are to be congratulated."

This story of the wrestling match will be continued.

The committee on arrangements has announced that all the seats will be under cover; so the people will be protected from the sun. Remember there will be two matches as Barackman will meet some middleweight worthy of him. This means that the bout will start at 2:30.
